

DELAWARE STATE UNIVERSITY COOPERATIVE EXTENSION

HEALTHIER STUDENTS

Conducting in-class nutrition education to over 2,000 eligible elementary school students each year

HEALTHIER FAMILIES

Providing healthy tips for parents of students participating in our direct education programs

HEALTHIER COMMUNITIES

Promoting nutrition and food safety through demonstrations at local health fairs, farmers markets and other community events

EDUCATION THROUGH THE SNAP-Ed PROGRAM

What is SNAP-Ed? The Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program – Education (SNAP-Ed) is a federally funded grant program that supports free evidence-based nutrition education and obesity prevention interventions and projects for persons eligible for the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) through complimentary direct education.

Where are the programs conducted? Education is available at community settings serving these individuals (which include children and families). Schools are eligible for free nutrition education from a community educator if over 50% of their students qualify for free and reduced price lunches.

For more information, please contact Denise Pinkett-Wynn, Program Administrator, at 302.857.8006 or dwynn@desu.edu.
