

CAST External Advisory Board Bio

We are in the process of updating the College of Agriculture, Science, and Technology (CAST) webpage to highlight our esteemed External Advisory Board members. As part of this effort, we are requesting a brief biography and a headshot to be included on the page. This will allow students, faculty, and external partners to learn more about your professional background and the valuable expertise you bring to CAST. Thank you in advance for your participation and continued support.

Brief Bio

George Class-Peters began his tenure with the Delaware Department of Agriculture in 2022 as the Deputy Principal Assistant. Before joining the Department, George worked for his alma mater, the University of Delaware, where he earned an Honors Bachelor of Arts in Psychology and a Bachelor of Science in Sports Health. George's connection to agriculture has spanned over a decade, as he was engaged in agriscience education at the Smyrna School District. He has served the Delaware FFA Association as a state officer and the National Chairman of the National Officer Nominating Committee at the National FFA Organization. George solidified his passion for agricultural education, leadership, and policy through his work in these roles. With various experiences and connections involving members of Delaware's General Assembly and the Congressional delegation, he strives to work closely with these all to ensure equitable policy and programs are sustained for Delaware's top industry.
